

Essence: Sweet children, at this time, the world is one of sorrow. Conquer your attachment to this world and remember the new age. Remove your intellects' yoga from this old world and connect them to the new world.

Question: What preparations are you children making and inspiring others to make in order to go to the land of Krishna?

Answer: In order to go to the land of Krishna, you simply have to renounce all the vices in this, your last birth. Become pure and inspire others to become pure. To become pure is the preparation you need to make in order to go from the land of sorrow to the land of happiness. Give everyone the message that this world is dirty and that, in order to go to the new, golden-aged world, they have to remove their intellects' yoga from this world.

Song: The heart says thanks to the One who gives it support.

Om shanti. In this song, children say: Baba. The children's intellects go to the unlimited Father. You children, who are now receiving happiness and have found the path to happiness, understand that the Father has truly come to give you happiness for 21 births. The Father Himself comes and gives you teachings to attain this happiness. He explains to you that none of the human beings of this world can give anything. All of them are part of the creation: they are all brothers and sisters. How could the creation give the inheritance of happiness to one another? Surely, only the one Father, the Creator, can give the inheritance of happiness. There are no human beings in this world who can give happiness to anyone. Only the one Satguru is the Bestower of Happiness and the Bestower of Salvation. Now, which happiness are you asking for? Everyone has forgotten that there was a lot of happiness in heaven. Now, in hell, there is a lot of sorrow. Therefore, it is definitely only the Master who would have mercy for all the children. There are many who believe in the Master of the World, but they do not know who He is or what they can receive from Him. It is not that we receive sorrow from the Master. You remember Him in order to attain peace and happiness. Surely, devotees remember God for some attainment. Because they are unhappy, they remember Him in order to attain peace and happiness. Only the One gives unlimited happiness. Everyone else continues to give limited, temporary happiness to one another. That is not a big thing. All devotees call out to the one God. God must definitely be the greatest of all. His praise is very great, and so He must be the One who gives a lot of happiness. The Father would never cause sorrow for His children or the world. The Father explains: Just think: when I create the world, that is, the new age, would that be to cause sorrow? I create it in order to give happiness. However, this drama of happiness and sorrow is predestined. Human beings are so unhappy! The Father explains that there is happiness when it is the new world in the new age. There is sorrow in the old world. Everything becomes old and completely decayed. The world that I create is said to be satopradhan at first. At that time, all human beings are very happy. Because that religion has disappeared, this is not in anyone's intellect now. You children understand that the new age was the golden age. It is now old and so everyone definitely hopes that the Father will make the world new. At first, there were very few people in the new world, the new age, and they were so happy that there was no limit to their happiness. The very name was heaven, Paradise, the new world. So, there would surely have been new people in that world. I must surely have created that new kingdom of deities. How else would it have been possible for the kingdom of deities to exist in the golden age when there were no kings in the iron age and everyone was poverty-stricken? How did this world change? People's intellects are so dead that they do not understand anything. The Father comes and explains to you children. Human beings blame the Master. They say that He is the One who gives happiness and sorrow and yet they still remember God for Him to come and grant them peace and happiness and take them back to the sweet home. In that case, He would definitely send you to play your parts. The golden age will definitely come after the iron age. Human beings are following the dictates of Ravan. Elevated directions are called shrimat. The Father says: I teach you easy Raja Yoga. I do not recite verses of the Gita the way you recite them. Would the Father sit and teach you the Gita? I teach you easy Raja Yoga. Do you listen to songs or poetry at school? At school you receive an education. The Father says: I am teaching you Raja Yoga. No one else has yoga with Me. Everyone has forgotten Me. This forgetting is also fixed in the drama. I come and remind you that I am your Father. You believe that God is incorporeal, and that you are therefore His incorporeal children, incorporeal souls. You come here to play your parts. Incorporeal souls reside in the incorporeal world, which is the highest of all. This world is corporeal, then there is the subtle world and above that, there is the incorporeal world which is on the third floor. The Father personally sits in front of you children and explains to you: I too reside in that place. When the world was new, there was one religion and it was called heaven. The Father is called Heavenly God, the Father. The iron age is the land of Kans and the golden age is the land of Krishna. So, you should ask them: Will you now come to the land of Krishna? If you want to go to the land of Krishna, become pure. Just as we are making preparations to go from the land of sorrow to the land of happiness, you should also do the same. For this, you definitely have to renounce the vices. This is everyone's final birth; everyone has to return home. Have you forgotten that this Mahabharat War took place 5000 years ago when all the religions were destroyed and the one religion was established? Deities existed in the golden age. They do not exist in the iron age. It is now the kingdom of Ravan. Human beings are devilish; they have to be made into deities. In order to do that, would God have to come into the devilish world or the divine world? Or, would He come at the confluence of the two? It has been remembered that God comes at the confluence age of every cycle. The Father explains to us in this way. You are following His shrimat. He says: I have come as your Guide to take you children back home. For this, I am also called the Death of all Deaths. The Great War, through which the gates of heaven opened, also took place a cycle ago. However, not everyone went to heaven. Everyone except the deities stayed in the land of silence. I, the Master of the land beyond sound, have come here to take everyone to the land beyond sound. You are now trapped in Ravan's chains and have become those with vicious, dirty and devilish traits. Lust is the number one dirty vice. Then, anger and greed are dirty, numberwise. You have to become conquerors of attachment to the whole world, for only then will you be able to go to heaven. When a father builds a limited house, the intellect is engaged in that. Children tell their father to build such-and-such in the new house. In the same way, the unlimited Father says: See how beautifully I am creating the new world of heaven for you! Therefore, your intellects' yoga should break away from the old world. What is there in this world? Bodies are old and there is alloy in souls. That can only be removed when you stay in yoga. You will then be able to imbibe knowledge. This Baba is giving you a lecture. O children, all of you souls are My creation. In the form of souls, you are brothers. All of you now have to come home with Me. Everyone has now become tamopradhan; it is Ravan's kingdom. Previously, you didn't know when Ravan's kingdom began. In the golden age, there are 16 celestial degrees, and then, in the silver age, there are 14 celestial degrees. It is not that you instantly lose two degrees; you come down gradually. Now there are no celestial degrees; there is a total eclipse. The Father says: Now give a donation and your eclipse will be removed. Give the donation of the five vices and do not commit any more sins. The people of Bharat burn Ravan. Surely, it is the kingdom of Ravan. However, they neither know what the kingdom of Ravan is nor what the kingdom of Rama is. They say that there should be the kingdom of Rama, that there should be a new Bharat, but not a single one of them knows when the world and Bharat becomes new. All are asleep in the graveyard. You children are now able to see the trees of the golden age. There are no deities here. The Father comes here and explains all of this. He is your Mother and Father. These two are the mother and father in a physical form. You remember that One as the Mother and Father. You will not say this in the golden age. There is no question of blessings there. Here, you have to belong to the Mother and Father and also become worthy. The Father reminds you: O people of Bharat, you have forgotten that you were deities and that you were so wealthy and sensible. You have now become bankrupt and senseless. Maya, Ravan, has made you senseless to this extent. This is why you burn Ravan. You create an effigy of an enemy and burn that. You children receive so much knowledge and yet you don't churn it. Your intellects continue to wander around. You forget to relate these points in your lectures. You do not explain fully. You have to give everyone the Father's message that Baba has come. The Great War is in front of you. Everyone has to return home. Heaven is being established. The Father says: Forget your bodies and bodily relations and remember Me. Don't just say that those of Islam and the Buddhists are all brothers. Those are all bodily religions. The soul of everyone is a child of the Father. The Father says: Renounce all religions of bodies and remember Me alone. We are celebrating the birth of Shiva in order to give you the Father's message. We Brahma Kumars and Kumaris are the grandchildren of Shiva. We are receiving the inheritance of the kingdom of heaven from Him. The Father gives us the message: Manmanabhav! Your sins will be absolved in this fire of yoga. Become bodiless! Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Night Class:

You children have now understood the corporeal world, the subtle region and the incorporeal world very well. Only you Brahmins receive this knowledge. The deities don't need it. You now have knowledge of the whole world. Previously, you belonged to the shudra clan. You have now become Brahma Kumars, and so you are given this knowledge through which your deity dynasty can be established. The Father comes and establishes the Brahmin clan, the sun-dynasty and the moon-dynasty dynasties and He does that at this confluence age. Those of other religions do not establish a dynasty immediately. They cannot be called gurus. The Father alone comes and establishes a religion. The Father says: You now have the concern on your heads of having remembrance of the Father. You forget this again and again. While making effort, also continue with your business etc. and also continue to have remembrance in order to be healthy. The Father enables you to earn an income with great force and you have to forget everything in that. I, the soul, am going: you are made to practise this. When you are eating, can you not remember the Father? When sewing clothes, let the yoga of your intellect be in remembrance of the Father. All the rubbish has to be removed. Baba says: You may do any work for the livelihood of your bodies. It is very easy. You have understood that the cycle of 84 births is now ending. The Father has now come to teach you Raja Yoga. The history and geography of the world is repeating at this time; it is being repeated just as it was a cycle ago. The Father alone explains the secret of repetition to you. It is said: One God, one religion. There will be peace there: that is the undivided kingdom. “Divided” means the devilish kingdom of Ravan. Those are deities and these are devils. A play about the devilish kingdom and the divine kingdom is based on Bharat. Bharat had the original eternal religion and it used to be the pure family path. The Father comes and creates the pure family path again. We were deities, then our degrees continued to decrease. We then went into the shudra dynasty. The Father teaches in the same way as teachers teach and the students listen. Good students pay full attention, they do not miss anything. You have to study regularly. You must not be absent in such a Godly university. Baba continues to tell you deep things. Achcha. Good night. Namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Renounce all the religions of bodies. Become a bodiless soul and remember the Father. Purify the soul with yoga and imbibe knowledge.
2. Churn the knowledge that the Father gives and give everyone the Father’s message. Do not allow your intellect to wander around.

Blessing: May you be obedient and place your steps in the Father’s footsteps and thereby receive God’s blessings.

To be obedient means to place your steps in BapDada’s footsteps, that is, to follow His orders. Only such obedient children receive God’s blessings in all relationships. This is also a law. In an ordinary way too, when you carry out a task according to a person’s directions, whoever’s task you carry out, you definitely receive blessings from that person. Here, these are God’s blessings and they make obedient souls constantly double light.

Slogan: Make divinity and spirituality the decoration of your life and ordinariness will finish.
