

Essence: Sweet children, this body is like a toy that works with the living key of the soul. Consider yourselves to be souls and you will become fearless.

Question: What name can you give to souls who continue to come down and perform a play through their bodies?

Answer: Puppets. Just as puppets play parts in a puppet show, so you souls too have continued to come down like puppets in this play of 5000 years. The Father has come to show you puppets the way to climb back up. Now apply the key of shrimat and you will go up above.

Song: The moth has been burnt in the gathering for the Flame.

Om shanti. The spiritual Father gives shrimat to you spiritual children. When someone's behaviour is not good, his parents tell him: "May God give you good directions!" The poor people don't understand that God really does give directions. You children are now receiving God's directions, that is, the spiritual Father is giving you children elevated directions to make you elevated. You now understand that you are becoming the most elevated of all. The Father is giving us such elevated directions. We are following His directions and changing from ordinary humans into deities. This proves that only that Father can change ordinary humans into deities. Sikhs sing that it didn't take God long to change humans into deities. Therefore, He definitely gives you the directions to change you from ordinary humans into deities. His praise is sung: "The incorporeal One, the One who does everything, the Fearless One." All of you have to become fearless. You consider yourselves to be souls. Souls don't have fear. The Father says: Become fearless! What is there to be afraid of? You don't have any fear. You continue to take shrimat from the Father while sitting at home. Whose shrimat is it? Who gives it? These things are not mentioned in the Gita. You children now understand these things. The Father says: You have become impure. Now, in order to become pure, constantly remember Me alone. This gathering to become the most elevated only takes place at the confluence age. Many come and take shrimat. This is called a mela (meeting) of the children with God. God is incorporeal and the children (souls), are also incorporeal. You have to instil in yourselves the firm habit of considering yourselves to be souls. When a toy is wound up with a key, it begins to dance. So, each soul is the key for his body, which is like a toy. If there were no soul in it, the body couldn't do anything. You are living toys. If a toy is not wound up with a key, it's of no use; it comes to a standstill. A soul is a living key; it is an imperishable and immortal key. The Father explains: I only look at souls. Instil the firm habit in yourselves. It is the soul that listens. The body cannot work without this key. This one has received an imperishable key. This key lasts for 5000 years. Because the key is living, the cycle also continues to turn. This body is a living toy. The Father too is a living soul. When the key stops turning, the Father comes and shows you how to start turning it again: Remember Me and the key will be recharged, that is, from tamopradhan, each soul will become satopradhan, just as petrol is put into a car's tank when it becomes empty. You souls now understand how to fill yourselves with petrol. When a battery becomes discharged, it is then filled with power. When a battery becomes discharged, its light goes out. The batteries of you souls are now being recharged. The more you stay in remembrance, the more you souls will be filled with power. Having gone around the cycle of 84 births, the batteries have become empty. Souls have gone through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. The Father has now come to wind you up with the key once again, that is, to recharge the batteries. What do human beings become like when they don't have any power? So, you batteries now have to be recharged with remembrance. You can also be called human batteries. The Father says: Have yoga with Me. Only the one Father gives this knowledge. Only that one Father is the Bestower of Salvation. You batteries are now being fully recharged, so that you will then continue to play your parts for your full 84 births. Just as puppets dance in a drama, so you souls are like those puppets. Having descended from up above over 5000 years, you have gradually come right down. The Father has come again to make you climb up. That is just a toy. The Father explains to you the meaning of the stage of ascending and the stage of descending; it is a matter of 5000 years. You understand that you are being wound up with the key of shrimat. When we become fully satopradhan, we will repeat our whole parts. This is such an easy aspect to understand and explain. Nevertheless, the Father says: Only those who understood this in the previous cycle will understand it. No matter how much you beat your heads, they will not understand any more. The Father gives everyone the same explanation: Remember the Father wherever you may be sitting. Even if no teacher is there in front of you, you can still sit and remember Him. You know that your sins will only be absolved by having remembrance of the Father. Therefore, you have to sit in remembrance of Him. There is no need for someone to sit you down especially to have remembrance. Remember the Father while eating, drinking, bathing and doing everything. Someone may come and sit in front of you for some time. It isn't that that person is helping you; no. Each of you has to help yourself. God has given you directions for what to do so that your intellects can become divine. You are given this temptation. He continues to give everyone shrimat. Certainly, some people's intellects are weak and other people's intellects are sharp. If you don't have yoga with the One who is pure, your batteries cannot become charged. Then, neither do you accept the Father's shrimat, nor are you able to have yoga. You now feel that your batteries are becoming recharged. From tamopradhan you definitely have to become satopradhan. It is at this time that you receive shrimat from the Supreme Soul. The world doesn't understand this at all. The Father says: You become deities through these directions of Mine. There is nothing higher than these. This knowledge will not remain there. This drama is predestined. Only at the confluence age does the Father come to make you most elevated. The memorial of this is celebrated on the path of devotion. They celebrate Dashera (the burning of an effigy of Ravan). Dashera is when the Father comes. Everything repeats every 5000 years. Only you children receive God's directions through which you become elevated. You souls were satopradhan. Then, while gradually coming down, you became tamopradhan and degraded. The Father now teaches you this knowledge and yoga and makes you satopradhan and elevated. He shows you how you came down the ladder. The drama continues. No one knows the beginning, the middle or the end of this drama. The Father has explained the drama to you, and so you now remember it. He is not able to tell you the biography of each one; they cannot be written for you to read and relate. The Father sits here and explains this. You are now becoming Brahmins and you will then become deities. The Father has explained: I establish all three religions: Brahmin, deity and warrior. It is now in your intellects that, through the Father, you have come to belong to the Brahmin clan and that you will become part of the sun dynasty and then the moon dynasty. Those who fail will only become part of the moon dynasty. Fail in which subject? In yoga. The knowledge of how you take 84 births is explained very easily. People speak of 8.4 million births and so they have moved so far away! You now receive directions from God. God only comes once. Therefore, you only receive His directions once. There used to be the one deity religion. Before that, it was the confluence age. They definitely received God's directions. The Father comes and changes the world. You are now changing. It is at this time that the Father changes you. You say that you have been changing every cycle and that you will continue to change. This battery is living, whereas those batteries are non-living. You children understand that the Father has come after 5000 years. He gives you the most elevated directions of all. You receive elevated directions from God, the Highest on High, through which you claim a high status. When someone comes to you, ask him: You are a child of God, are you not? God is Shiv Baba. They celebrate the birthday of Shiva. He is also the Bestower of Salvation. He doesn't have a body of His own, so through whom would He give directions? You too are souls and you speak through your bodies. A soul cannot do anything without a body. How does the incorporeal Father come? It is remembered that He enters a chariot. Someone then made up something and others made up something else about all of that. They have even shown the Trimurti in the subtle region. The Father explains: All of those things are matters of visions. However, the whole of creation exists here. Therefore, the Father, the Creator, also has to come here. He has to enter the impure world in order to purify you. Here, He is directly purifying you children. You understand this, and yet, in spite of that, the knowledge does not sit in your intellects. You are unable to explain to anyone. You don't follow shrimat, and so you can't become the most elevated of all. What status will those who don't understand anything claim? The more service you do, the higher the status you will claim. The Father has said: Give your bones to doing service. Do all-round service. We are ready to give our bones to do the Father's service. Many children are desperate to do service. Baba, liberate us so that we can engage ourselves in doing service through which many can benefit. The whole world does physical service, yet they have only been coming down the ladder through that. Now, through this spiritual service, there is the stage of ascending. Each of you can understand when someone is doing more service than you. Some daughters are very good and serviceable and so they can look after a centre. They sit in class numberwise. Here, you are not made to sit, numberwise. Otherwise, you would have heart failure. You can understand that if you don't do service, your status would definitely be reduced. There are many levels of status - numberwise. However, that is the land of happiness and this is the land of sorrow. There, there are no illnesses, etc. You have to use your intellect for everything. You can then understand that you will claim a low status because you don't do service. Only by doing service can you receive a status. Check yourself: each one of you knows your own stage. Mama and Baba have also been doing service. There are very good children too. Even though they may be working, they are told to take leave on half-pay and do service; there is nothing wrong with that. Those who are seated on Baba's heart throne will then sit on the peacock throne, numberwise, according to their efforts. It is in this way that you are threaded on to the rosary of victory. You surrender yourselves and you also do service. If you have surrendered yourself, but don't do service, your status is reduced. This kingdom is established by your following shrimat. Have you ever heard this before? Have you ever heard about or seen a kingdom being established by studying? Yes, by giving donations and performing charity, you can take birth to a king, but you would never have heard that you can claim a royal status by studying. No one knows this. The Father explains: You have taken the full 84 births. You now have to go up above. This is very easy. You understand this every cycle, numberwise, according to your efforts. The Father gives love and remembrance, numberwise, according to your efforts. He gives a lot of love and remembrance to those who stay busy doing service. Therefore, check yourself to see whether you are seated on His heart throne. Can I become a bead of the rosary? Those who are uneducated will have to bow down in front of those who are educated. The Father says: Children, make effort! However, if it is not in their parts in the drama, then however much you beat your head, they won't climb up. There is one bad omen or another through body consciousness and then other vices come. The main, severe illness is body consciousness. In the golden age, there will be no mention of body consciousness. There, you will have the reward. It is here that the Father explains this. No one else can give you the shrimat to consider yourselves to be souls and to remember the Father constantly. This is the main thing. You should write: Incorporeal God speaks: Remember Me alone! Consider yourself to be a soul! Don't even remember your body! Just as on the path of devotion, they only worship Shiva, so, now, only I give you this knowledge. All the rest is devotion. Only from Shiv Baba do you receive this unadulterated knowledge. These jewels emerge from the Ocean of Knowledge. It is not a question of that ocean. This Ocean of Knowledge gives you children jewels of this knowledge through which you become deities. Look what they have written in the scriptures! They have portrayed deities emerging from the ocean and giving jewels. This Ocean of Knowledge is giving you children jewels. You pick up jewels of this knowledge. Previously, you used to pick up stones and so you became those with stone intellects. Now, by picking up these jewels, you become those with divine intellects. You are becoming lords of divinity. Lakshmi and Narayan, lords of divinity, were the rulers of the world. They have created many names and images on the path of devotion. In fact, Lakshmi and Narayan and lords of divinity are the same. The gathering (mela) for Pashupatinath (The Lord of all Species) that takes place in Nepal is also that of the Lord of Divinity. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to you spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Only pick up the jewels of this knowledge that the Father gives you, not stones. Protect yourself from the severe illness of body consciousness.
2. In order to charge your battery fully, have yoga with the Father, the Power House. Make effort to remain soul conscious. Remain fearless.

Blessing: May you be a satisfied soul who experiences the stage of being ignorant of any knowledge of desire with the motivation to become a bestower.

Constantly have the one aim that, as a child of the Bestower, you have to give to all souls. By having the motivation to become a bestower, you will become a soul who is full and those who are full are constantly content. "I am a child of the Bestower, and to give is to receive". This feeling will make you experience the stage of being constantly free from obstacles and ignorant of any knowledge of desire. Let your vision be constantly focused on the one aim of being a point, while seeing the expansion of any situation. See but do not see it, and hear about it, but do not listen to it.

Slogan: If your intellect or stage is weak, the reason is wasteful thoughts.

Avyakt Signal: Now have the deep concern to become complete and karmateet.

In order to become karmateet, become free from any accounts of karma. In doing service, too, do not be a server who is tied in any bondage of service. Serve while being free from bondage, that is, be free from limited, royal desires. There are bondages of the body and bondages of the relations of the body. Similarly, selfishness in the service you do is also a bondage, which creates obstacles to you becoming karmateet. To be karmateet means to be free from these royal karmic accounts.
